

GRANT AGREEMENT

This grant agreement (this "Agreement") is made effective on September 6, 2019 (the "Effective Date") between the University of Pittsburgh – Of the Commonwealth System of Higher Education (the "University"), a Pennsylvania nonprofit corporation and state-related institution of higher education, and the Charles Koch Foundation, a Kansas nonprofit corporation (the "Donor"). This Agreement is for the benefit of The Center for Governance and Markets (the "Center"), currently under the direction of Dr. Jennifer Murtazashvili and co-director Dr. Ilia Murtazashvili. The University and the Donor are sometimes referred to in this Agreement individually as a "Party" and collectively as the "Parties." The Parties agree as follows:

1. Promoting Academic Freedom. Consistent with the Donor's principles of supporting open inquiry and a diversity of ideas in higher education, the Donor's grant is intended to help promote a republic of science at the University where ideas can be exchanged freely and useful knowledge will benefit the well-being of individuals and society. Thus, the Parties agree that the academic freedom of the University, the Center, and their faculty, students, and staff is critical to the success of the Center's research, scholarship, teaching, and service.

2. The University's Proposal. The Parties enter into this Agreement based on the University's proposal, which is hereby incorporated into and made part of this Agreement and attached as Attachment A (the "Proposal"). The Proposal reflects the vision of and relies on the leadership of Dr. Jennifer Murtazashvili, who was selected by the University, according to its normal procedures, to be the director of the Center (the "Center Director"). As stated in the Proposal the mission of the Center is to create space for scholars to explore diverse ideas and produce rigorous scholarship and teaching on the impact of political institutions, markets, and technology on human prosperity and well-being in the United States and around the world (the "Center's Mission").

3. The Center Programs.

The Center Programs are described more fully in the Proposal and include "Center Director, Faculty, and Administration," ten "Ph.D. Fellowships," twelve "Post-Doctoral Fellowships," "Research Support," "Academic Program Support," and "Travel Support." The University shall use any funds received under this Agreement to support the Center Programs in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. According to the University's normal practices, the Center Director is responsible for directing the Center Programs, which includes allocating and administering the Center's budget, supervising Center staff, mentorship, and other duties to advance the Center's Mission as deemed appropriate by the Center Director.

b. Selection According to the University's Normal Procedures. The Parties mutually agree that the selection of the foregoing positions and fellowships by the University will follow the University's normal procedures for selecting such positions and fellows for the applicable academic units. As a matter of academic freedom for academic units at the University, individuals who hold positions with or are affiliated with the Center must be approved by the Center Director, in accordance with School's and University's normal procedures.

4. The University's Support for the Center. The University shall support the Center Programs to advance the University's mission. As part of this support, the University shall ensure that the faculty, students, and staff working with the Center have adequate space to achieve the Center's Mission. Therefore, the University shall provide the Center with sufficient contiguous office space including shared conference and meeting spaces for a minimum of 15 people.

5. The Donor's Support for the Center Programs.
